

AUSTIN FEDERAL CRIMES ATTORNEY

Federal Crimes Lawyer in Austin

Federal criminal cases are distinct from state cases and require criminal defense attorneys who are well versed in federal laws. Federal crimes include, but are not limited to the following:

- Corporate theft or wrongdoing
- Money laundering
- Embezzlement, bribery, and extortion
- Fraud—including mail fraud, wire fraud, and Internet fraud
- Internet solicitation and pornography
- Racketeering
- Tax evasion
- Drug trafficking

If you are contacted by a federal agency, such as the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms \(ATF\), Federal Bureau of Investigation \(FBI\), Drug Enforcement Agency \(DEA\), the Criminal Division of the IRS \(CID\), or the U.S. Postal Service (USPS), you may be a witness or suspect in a federal investigation. In these cases, it is important to hire an attorney who is knowledgeable and experienced in federal cases to ensure the best possible outcome for you.

Federal Crimes Defense Lawyer in Texas

Federal sentences are usually more severe than state sentences. For example, federal prison sentences do not typically include the possibility of parole. Your behavior and cooperation during an investigation can be advantageous to the eventual outcome of the case but could also result in additional charges if you do not fully understand the circumstances and legal ramifications of your actions.

The attorneys at White and Measells have the qualifications to handle your federal criminal case. Call (512) 369-3737 for a free consultation.

Austin Federal Crimes Attorney

At White & Measells, we work with you to make certain that you have a knowledgeable resource to assist you as you navigate a federal investigation. If necessary, we ensure that you have competent, accomplished representation in your defense at a federal trial.

Your federal crimes attorney will review the laws and regulations pertaining to your case and determine how best to cooperate with prosecutors in order to receive the most favorable outcomes. He or she will ascertain the purpose of the investigation and attempt to predict the outcome based on the information you provide.

Your Austin Federal Crimes Lawyer

Your attorney will be your guide. He will shepherd you through the investigation and any subsequent trial, helping you to avoid behavior that could result in stiffer penalties or additional charges.

Your attorney may negotiate with federal investigators to arrange a plea bargain or to reduce the severity of your sentence. He or she will present your actions in the best light to a judge and jury, offering reasonable doubt as to your culpability or a legal explanation for your activity.

If you are facing the potential for federal criminal investigation, or if the investigation has already begun, it is vital to contact an Austin federal crimes lawyer immediately. Don't navigate the turbulent waters of federal investigation alone. Call (512) 369-3737 today for a free consultation at our Austin offices.