

AUSTIN THEFT CRIMES ATTORNEY

Theft Crimes Lawyer in Austin

Theft is the willful removal of money or property from its rightful owner with the intent to use it as one's own. Theft crimes range in severity from misdemeanors to felonies depending on the value of the goods and carry sentences that include jail time, fines, and court-ordered restitution.

Theft crimes can include, but are not limited to the following:

- Shoplifting
- Burglary
- Robbery, including armed robbery
- Embezzlement
- Grand larceny

A theft crime can be as simple as writing a bad check or as complicated as identity theft or a conspiracy to commit fraud.

Texas Theft Crimes Defense Lawyer

Depending on the nature of the activity, theft crimes may be tried at the state or federal level. Both are complicated and require capable legal representation to ensure a positive outcome for all parties. An experienced theft crimes attorney can ensure that your voice is heard during legal proceedings and that your constitutional rights are preserved.

Be aware that federal cases carry greater weight than state cases and may result in more serious penalties. Whether you have been charged at the state or federal level, the attorneys at White & Measells will offer their full assistance and experience to work toward a proper solution. Call (512) 369-3737 to begin working with a skilled attorney and crafting your strongest defense.

Travis County Theft Crimes Lawyer

At the law offices of White & Measells, we work with you throughout the legal process to ensure a favorable result from a theft crimes investigation and, if necessary, present your case for trial in front of a judge or jury.

Your attorney will negotiate with federal or state prosecutors for plea bargains and appropriate restitution agreements. He may work with the alleged victim(s) to negotiate an opportunity to diffuse the situation. In many cases, charges may be reduced or dropped if you are able to return the stolen money or property.

If your case goes to trial, your attorney will present the facts in the best possible light, explaining any mitigating circumstances or legal reasons for your actions. He may provide witnesses who attest to your innocence or who provide reason for a reduced sentence.

If you have personal issues that lead to the theft, such as a drug, alcohol, or gambling addiction, mental illness, or unemployment, your attorney may seek treatment or aid for these underlying problems as part of your sentencing or restitution agreement.

Austin Theft Crimes Defense Attorneys

At White & Measells, all of our clients get full service. Whether you are accused of petty theft or bank robbery, you will receive our complete and total attention. We believe that all people deserve competent legal representation. There is no client too big or too small.

If you are facing criminal charges for theft crimes, contact an Austin theft crimes defense attorney at White & Measells at (512) 369-3737 to set up a free consultation. Time is of the essence—your options as a defendant become fewer as time goes by. Call us today.